SALLY MALAY WITHDRAWS FROM WILLS CREEK JOINT VENTURE

Navigator Resources Limited (ASX: NAV) advises that it has received notice from Sally Malay Exploration Pty Ltd (Sally Malay) of their withdrawal from the Wills Creek nickel joint venture in the East Kimberley effective 31 December 2006.

The Company will appraise all new exploration data from the project prior to choosing from a number of advancement options, including other potential joint ventures covering all or part of the project area. The Wills Creek project contains several nickel and copper occurrences in a geological setting similar to the nearby Copernicus nickel deposit.

Yours faithfully

Tom Sanders
Managing Director
